

Village 'Skyscrapers' Visioned by Councilman

By FRED WEIGEL
Skyscrapers in Palm Springs? Maybe not today or tomorrow, but someday soon Palm Springs quite possibly will become an even greater city than Miami Beach—tall buildings and all, Councilman Leonard Wolf, in a surprise move Monday at the council's luncheon, proposed that the city lift its height limit law on buildings and open local acreage for industries.

Wolf said after the noon meeting that he hadn't meant to come out with the proposals for taller buildings and light industry until the council meeting of Sept. 8. But "because the conversation hit around the subject, it was just brought to the fore-ground."

There was no outspoken objection to the proposal by the balance of the council which may bring to an end the old law dictating that Palm Springs buildings can only be 30 feet high. "Manufacturing will not be new to Palm Springs," said Councilman Wolf. "We have several firms now."

"It can be the type of manufacturing that will benefit this community, not hurt it."

He had in mind such Palm

Spring firms as Bird Respirator and Oxygen Company, Gluhareff Helicopter Company, Woodcraft of California and Dr. Melford H. Beebe's Sacroiliac Braces.

These firms manufacture goods here and ship them all over the world.

In reality, the two proposals—for larger buildings and industrial uses—go hand in hand in the future development of the area.

If larger buildings of six, eight or 10, 12 — or even taller — buildings are permissible, the rate of taxes to the city would increase, and an overall reduction in local taxes could be seen, according to Councilman Wolf.

Eisenhower, Macmillan End Talks Without Agreement on Summit Meet

City Building Total Nearing $11-Millions

Eight-Month Total Easily Outdistances Same Period in '58

Still rising at a record-breaking clip, new construction in Palm Springs nudged the $11 million mark today at the end of the first eight months of 1959.

City officials said $682,568 worth of new building in August brought the year's construction total to $10,962,337.

BUILDING FOR THE month dropped below the $1,501,100 logged for August, 1958, but the 1959 total to date is still more than $3 million ahead of the $7,738,915 registered for the first eight months of 1958.

New homes accounted for the big share of last month's building record as permits were issued for construction of 29 dwellings, worth $455,000.

SWIMMING POOLS ran second as builders added 36 pools—valued at $133,500—to the city, bringing the total pool count to a record 2018.

Other construction for the month involved 15 dwelling alterations and additions, $52,815; one new commercial building, $13,000; six commercial additions, $16,750; one hotel addition, $2,000; one apartment addition, $1,000; one trailer addition, $500; and one industrial building, $8,000.

U.S. ICBMs Said 'Combat Ready'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States is preparing to declare its first intercontinental ballistic missile unit "combat ready."

After a two-month delay to fix mechanical troubles, the first part-strength Atlas ICBM squadron is being turned over to the Strategic Air Command at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

The unit has five missiles — three mounted on launching pads and two spares. Later squadrons will have 10 missiles.

LABOR DAY FLING MAY BE LAST ONE FOR 450 MOTORISTS

CHICAGO (UPI)—America's last fling at summer vacation fun may be the last fling, period, for 450 motorists, the National Safety Council said today.

The council predicted that 450 persons may be killed in one of the biggest traffic jams in the nation's history during the Labor Day weekend.

Virtually every one of the 71 million automobiles in the United States will be on the road at some time between 6 p. m. Friday and midnight Monday, the council said.

Together, they'll roll up a predicted seven billion miles of travel as vacationers seek a respite from work and relief from the heat at the seashore, in the mountains or in other recreational pursuits.

$4,000 Jewelry Theft Reported By Hotel Guest

Village police cleared two more burglaries by a gang of teen-agers "masterminds" and turned their energies to a new case — the burglary of $4,000 in jewelry from a Los Angeles food packaging firm.

Included in the solving of two new cases was the mysterious burglary of the home of Jolie Gabor, mother of the famed show business sisters, at 700 Stevens Road here.

YESTERDAY, however, Gerald Hoffman, president of Milani Food Company, reported the theft of a $3,000 diamond — studded gold wristwatch and a $1,000 pair of diamond earrings while he and his wife were swimming in a Village hotel's pool. Hoffman said the jewelry had been left in his hotel room.

Police dismissed the four admitted young burglars from any responsibility in the new burglary.

The clearing of the Gabor burglary found only the return of a $189 portable TV set, and still not recovered are three framed pictures of the three Gabor sisters, and two pink sheets, and two Egyptian crosses, two inches high worth $300, three manuscripts on astrology and one Alexandrite ring, the latter three belonging to Gloria D'Amore, a resident at the Gabor home.

SGT. HERRERA said that the teenage leader, who assertedly admits "doing some of the jobs by myself," has a very good memory and can relate even minor details of the crimes, but admits nothing until he is confronted with the evidence of the crime, and then only in part.

One of the 15-year-olds is the son of a Palm Springs tavern owner and the other two are the sons of a well-known painting contractor.

India's Defense Officers in Mass Resignations

NEW DELHI, India (UPI) — Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon and the heads of India's army, navy and air force resigned today.

The internal dissension in the nation's armed forces erupted as fresh reports came in that Communist Chinese troops were massing along India's northern frontiers.

It was reported that a fresh wave of Red Chinese troops backed up by multi-packed heavy weapons was advancing toward northeastern India.

FIREMAN, SAVE MY ROAST was the plea voiced by Mrs. Muriel Landstrom, of 259 East El Portal, yesterday as city firemen rushed into her smoke-blackened kitchen. But it was too late—the $7 porker went to the dogs in a canine feast prepared by 12-year-old Larry Dana, of 214 East

El Portal and six-year-old Celeste Landstrom. Firemen, who had expected to find a house in flames arrived on the scene in time to save the scorched roast from total destruction, much to the delight of every pup within a block area. (Desert Sun Photo).

TELEPHONE RATE HEARING STARTS

Special to The Desert Sun
INDIO — A Public Utilities Commission hearing on a proposed Coachella Valley Telephone Co. rate increase opened today in a jam-packed Indio Elks Lodge hall.

Even the County Board of Supervisors was represented in a crowd of spectators and potential witnesses assembled for the first session of a three-day hearing called to decide the fate of the company's plan to increase telephone billings by $194,000 a year.

THE BOARD OF Supervisors yesterday appointed Deputy County Counsel Justin McCarthy as its representative at the hearing. But the board indicated neither approval or disapproval of the rate increase.

McCarthy, however, will apparently be guided by a County Board of Trade survey report which alleges that the company has no justification for its proposed rate hike.

ALSO REPRESENTED and expected to exercise a strong voice in the hearing are representatives of the Palm Desert, Thousand Palms and Indio Chamber of Commerce.

Other Coachella Valley communities served by J. C. Newman's telephone company are represented officially or unofficially — by many of the company's 7,800 subscribers.

Several chambers of commerce have already gone on record in opposition to the rate increase, charging the company should "upgrade its service before seeking an increase."

Heart Attack Strikes Sirott

Al Sirott, owner of Palm Springs Lincoln - Mercury, is reported doing "very well" today at Desert Hospital where he is recuperating from a mild occurrence of a heart attack suffered early Sunday morning.

Length of his stay there is indefinite. It was reported, with only members of his immediate family admitted as visitors at the present time.

Back to School Today—But Only For Registration

It's back to school — for registration — today.

Youngsters attending school here for the first time this fall will register at Palm Springs elementary schools from today through Friday.

New high school and junior high school students will register from Sept. 8 through 11, school officials said.

Except for Frances Stevens students, only new pupils are required to register at elementary schools. All students, both new and returning, should register at Francis Stevens, including kindergarten children.

Registration hours are from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and from 1 to 3 p.m. at elementary schools and from 8:30 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3 p.m. for junior and senior high schools.

Airline Threatened

Walkout Snarls Canaveral Work

United Press International
A walkout by operating engineers tied up construction projects at the Cape Canaveral missile test center today and the flight engineers threatened a strike tonight against Pan American World Airways.

But threatened strikes in the rubber, glass and meat packing industries were averted.

NEGOTIATORS PLANNED to meet today in an effort to end a strike by members of Local 673 of the AFL-CIO Operating Engineers Union at Cape Canaveral. They set up picket lines at both entrances Monday.

A construction company spokesman said the workers were demanding double time pay for overtime work in violation of a government contract. Thousands of workers could be involved, he said, because other craft unions refused to cross the engineers' picket lines.

A 24 - HOUR TRUCE was arranged Monday night in a strike threatened by the Flight Engineers Union against Pan American World Airways. The union said it would walk out if the airline began training so-called "third pilots" for jet planes.

Pan American, a union spokesman said, had agreed not to begin the training program until tonight to enable negotiators to try and work out an agreement.

Ike's 'Price' Higher Than Macmillan's

Policy for Meeting With Khrushchev Still Undetermined

LONDON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan left it clear today that they still do not agree completely on a summit policy.

Although nothing they said in their joint radio-television chat Monday indicated any serious friction, it was quite clear that Eisenhower's price for formal summit negotiations with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was higher than Macmillan's.

AFTER WINDING up two days of cold war talks with the prime minister the President this morning took time out from his European peace crusade to deal with White House business that has piled up.

He scheduled no more major political talks until he goes to Paris Wednesday to meet with French President Charles de Gaulle and Italian leaders.

THE PRESIDENT and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev are scheduled to go into seclusion at Camp Davis for two days of fateful cold war talk at the end of the Russian leader's U.S. tour, it was revealed today.

High diplomatic sources said Eisenhower plans to take Khrushchev to the isolated and tightly guarded presidential retreat in Maryland's Catoctin Mountains on Sept. 25. Eisenhower will remain there with him until about midday Sept. 27.

MEANWHILE, IN San Francisco, President Eisenhower's pending exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was seen as having done little to curb Communist aggressors in Asia, according to Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

And in Los Angeles, a bitter battle shaped up today at the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention over a resolution dealing with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's forthcoming visit to the United States.

JOHN W. MAHAN, national commander of the VFW, said he expected the resolution to cause controversy in committee and when it reaches the floor.

"Frankly," said Mahan, "we're unhappy Khrushchev is coming here."

Khrushchev will deliver a one-hour speech over the NBC television and radio networks during his visit to this country this month, the network said today.

HILLY CRAWFORD'S BACK IN VILLAGE, RESUMES COLUMN

It's back "Around Town" for Hilly Crawford, The Desert Sun's galvanizing society editor and columnist.

Hilly's back at her desk after a two-month vacation — with husband Bill — that carried her through Reno, Lake Tahoe, Portland, Ore., and all along the Oregon and California coastlines.

Her popular resort column, "Around Town," resumes in today's edition of The Desert Sun.

LIKE A GIANT JIGSAW, the new Civic Center bowling alley rapidly takes shape as a huge crane drops pre-formed slabs into place for walls and flooring. Located just off McCallum Way near the Civic Center, the plush, $1 million bowling alley is scheduled for completion by late October. It will house 24 bowling lanes featuring the most up-to-date pinsetting mechanisms. See page 2 for additional picture, story. (Gayle Studio Photo).

COUNCIL ACTION ASKED ON LINES

Possible heavy opposition to the installation of underground utilities was predicted by Councilwoman Ruth Hardy Monday, as she asked the City Council to stand firm on the passage of a proposed ordinance which would make it mandatory for new subdivisions to install utilities underground.

An attempt was made last week by the city administration to clear the way for dropping main power and telephone supply lines below the surface of Indian Avenue and also along the new Tahquitz Drive, but representatives of the California Electric Company said it would be a very costly operation.

THE MENTION of last week's meeting brought out a charge by Councilman John Wood that Cal-electric power charges were "outrageous" and he added that he believed that "Palm Springs is supporting the entire power district in the desert area."

"We have moved into a new summertime peak load," said Wood, "and I think the excuse for high rates based on the little amount of power used in the summer is not now realistic."

ALTHOUGH MANY of the councilmen nodded their heads in approval of Wood's stand, Councilman George Beebe, Jr., was the only one who made further mention of it. "We are currently making a study of the power company," he said, and then added, "that's all I am going to say."

The Planning Commission tomorrow plans to hold an open discussion on the matter of underground utilities, sidewalks and other subdivision provisions, adding new improvement requirements.

Heart Stopped For 45 Minutes

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — A hospital spokesman today told how an 8-year-old boy's heart was stopped for 45 minutes while a successful operation was performed to remove a block in the aortic valve.

Three Ex-Radio Officials Face 'Agent' Charge

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A federal Grand Jury today accused three former officials of Mutual Broadcasting Co. of failing to register as agents of the Dominican Republic.

The indictment was returned against Alexander Gutierrez, Hal Roach Jr., and Garland L. Culpepper Jr.

IT MUST BE FALL! CITY PUTS METERS BACK IN OPERATION

Summer is officially over! Local residents and visitors will have to start carrying change again for parking meters.

Palm Springs parking meters, cleaned and repaired, went back into service on city streets this week with a regular motorcycle patrol set up by the police department.

Within the city limits, the resort community has approximately 209 one-hour meters, 357 two-hour meters, and 70 other meters, which brought a total revenue into city coffers of $38,142 during the past fiscal year.

Sales Tax Remains

County Taxes Go Up 9 Cents

Special to The Desert Sun
RIVERSIDE — Riverside County property taxes went up only nine cents today as the City of Corona decided to remain within the county's Bradley-Burns sales tax structure.

Assured of continuance of the tax program — and its $600,000 in extra tax revenue — the County Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted a $1.73 tax rate for the year ending next June 30.

WHICH MEANS an 11-cent savings for county taxpayers who would have faced a tax of $1.84 per $100 of assessed evaluation if Corona had backed out of the tax program.

In an eleventh hour action early yesterday morning, Corona's City Council voted to pay the county 10 per cent of its Bradley-Burns tax income, preventing the collapse of the program which will add an estimated $600,000 to county coffers this year.

FAILURE OF THE Corona council to adopt its sales tax ordinance would have resulted in the end of the Bradley - Burns program here Oct. 1.

The B-B Act requires the state to collect one per cent sales taxes in Riverside, cities and unincorporated areas, and disburse its collections among the cities and the county.

With the exception of Palm Springs, every city contributes 10 per cent of its tax proceeds to the county. Palm Springs pays five per cent and Corona expressed its resentment of the resort's stipend by reducing its share to five per cent July 1.

This spelled the end of the Bradley-Burns program and county supervisors were prepared to fill the expected $600,000 hole in its $33 million budget by increasing taxes to $1.84—20 cents over last year's rate until the reversal of its stand by the Corona Council.

MONSIGNOR POWER

Funeral Slated For Monsignor John Power

Funeral services will be conducted in San Bernardino this week for the Right Rev. Monsignor John Power, late pastor of Our Lady of Solitude Church in Palm Springs.

Monsignor Power, 69, died at a San Bernardino Hospital Sunday, after a long illness.

A NATIVE OF Ireland, Monsignor Power graduated from St. Patrick's College at Carlow and was ordained in the priesthood at Iowa City in 1914.

He later served at Santa Cruz, at St. Bihiana Cathedral in Los Angeles, Monrovia and Elsinore, at St. Anne's in San Diego, St. George's in Ontario and at St. Bernard's in San Bernardino.

MONSIGNOR POWER came to Our Lady of Solitude here in 1951, remaining until his retirement a year ago.

He leaves a nephew, Jack Power, of Oakland, and a niece, Mrs. William Begley, also of Oakland.

ROSARY WILL be recited at 8 p.m. Wednesday in Holy Rosary Church in San Bernardino. Office of the Dead will be held at the church at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, followed by Pontifical Requiem Mass at 11 a.m.

Interment will be at Mountain View Cemetery in San Bernardino immediately after the Mass. Shaw's Mortuary, San Bernardino, is in charge of funeral arrangements.

Postmaster Gets Backing In 'Filth' War

Summerfield Joined By Clergy in Attack On Mail Pornography

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield, backed by several religious leaders, urged Congress today to blot out "mail order obscenity" which could corrupt a million children this year.

He told a Senate hearing the volume of mailed pornography has doubled in five years and, unless checked, "can more than double again over the next four years."

BY 1963, HE SAID, "one school age child out of every 18... would be the target of these purveyors of filth."

Summerfield, testifying before a joint hearing by Senate subcommittees on juvenile delinquency and constitutional amendments, supported two proposed amendments to guarantee the right of states to ban obscene material and a separate bill which would stiffen penalties for those convicted of sending filth through the mails.

SUPPORTING testimony was given by the Rev. Dr. Daniel A. Poling, editor of the Christian Herald; Dr. Julius Mark, senior rabbi of Temple Emanuel in New York; Msgr. George T. Guilfoyle, executive director of Catholic charities in the Archdiocese of New York; and Msgr. Thomas A. Donnellan, chancellor of the New York Archdiocese, who presented views of Francis Cardinal Spellman, and Charles H. Keating Jr., chairman of Citizens for Decent Literature, Inc.

Poling commended Summerfield for his unsuccessful effort to ban "Lady Chatterley's Lover" from the mails.

HE SAID THE novel "contains in its 365 pages 68 instances or incidents which describe the sex act with no omitted detail and with the use of words, often repeated, that are to be found only on the walls of ill-kept outhouses."

Cardinal Spellman, in his statement read by Donnellan, said "affirmative action by Congress is necessary to protect the right of parents to educate their children in an atmosphere reasonably free from defilement."

A STATEMENT by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen said legislative action to protect young minds from indecency is as necessary as pure food laws to protect their bodies from impurity.

"Why could we not keep poison away from minds as we keep poison away from stomachs?"

JUVENILES BLAMED FOR POLO GROUNDS WINDOW BREAKAGE

Palm Springs Recreation Director Howard Haddock today notified the city that he has been having a "very bad time with juvenile vandalism" at the Palm Springs Polo Grounds.

A report, made to the council by City Manager Dan Wagner, said that this summer the city has to replace 25 panes of clear plate glass and 23 panes of frosted glass that had been broken.

TILT-UP CONSTRUCTION of Palm Springs new 24-lane bowling emporium near Civic Center gets the approving eye of co-owner A. R. Simon, left, as Lester R. Bana, center, and co-contractor Leonard Wolf show him construction blueprints. The $1,000,000 bowling center, first to be built in Palm Springs in more than 20 years, is scheduled for completion late in October. (Gayle Studio Photo).

BOWLING ALLEY'S WALLS SOAR ALOFT

Palm Springs has waited more than 20 years for a new bowling center. Now that it is getting one—Ollman Ray Ryan and Attorney A. R. Simon's 24-lane, $1,000,000 beauty called "Palm Springs Lanes"—no time is being lost in its construction.

One of the stellar attractions of the multi-acre regional merchandising mart near Civic Center, known as Palm Springs Shopping Center, the bowling emporium is rising with incredible speed as a result of the largest tilt-up construction job in the history of the Palm Springs area.

ON HAND TO WITNESS the first walls being placed by a giant crane were co-owner Simon, co-contractor Leonard Wolf and Lester R. Bana, project manager for Mayer & Kanner, Palm Springs Shopping Center architects. Ernest W. Hahn, Inc., is co-contractor.

Walls for the masonry and steel building of contemporary design were formed in moulds on the site.

The south wall of the structure is expandable for the building of additional lanes. Pillars supporting this wall may be unbolted from their foundations and moved for accommodation of the new lanes.

LOCATED AT THE intersection of McCallum and Sunset Way, Palm Springs Lanes is scheduled for completion late in October.

It's 26,000 square feet of floor space will be occupied by a coffee shop, restaurant, cocktail lounge, private banquet room, professionally staffed nursery and men's and women's locker rooms.

Other features of Palm Springs Lanes include all-automatic pin-setting machines, carpeted floors and a large illuminated area for teenage dances. Acres of landscaped parking areas will be available.

BOWLERS WILL be able to combine recreation with convenient shopping. Immediately adjacent to the bowling center will rise a giant supermarket boasting 30,000 square feet of floor space.

It will mark the desert area debut of Market Basket, one of Southern California's largest chain markets. Construction of the store is expected to be launched early in 1960.

CIRCUS IS COMING — IF CITY FINDS A PLACE FOR IT

Cristiani Bros. Circus is coming to town. But as yet the city doesn't know where to put them.

The regular circus site — off the apron of the Palm Springs Airport — cannot be used this year because of the repair work on McCallum-Tahquitz and the consequent inaccessibility of the area to traffic.

Circus officials are looking over possible other sites but unless the Polo Grounds will accommodate the circus it looks as if the three-ring fun show will have to move to Indio.

The circus wanted to come to Palm Springs for a one-day stand on Sept. 21, enroute to its winter quarters in the east.

Precious Blood Carnival Slated For Labor Day

BANNING — Barbecues, a jet plane and a free trip to Hawaii spell the biggest Labor Day Carnival ever for Banning's Precious Blood Catholic School Parish.

The carnival, Banning's third annual Labor Day fete, runs Sunday and Monday at the Precious Blood school grounds.

Sponsored by the school, the carnival features two days of barbecues, continuous entertainment, and game booths and rides for children.

As a special treat for air-minded youngsters, the Air Force will park an F-86 supersonic jet fighter on the carnival grounds. The aircraft trailer has a special ramp so everyone can see the cockpit and a cutaway view of the engine.

Five major prizes will be awarded during the carnival, including an expense-paid trip for two to Hawaii — or a $500 savings bond — and a week end for two in Las Vegas.

The Ladies of the Moose will be assisted by "kitchenmaster" Herb Phillips. Senior Regent Ruth Cecchi is in charge of arrangements.

McKnight Buys DHS Trailer Park

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Service station operator C. E. McKnight has purchased the Palm Drive Trailer Park from Bruce Guymon, it was announced here today.

McKnight, owner of McKnight's Chevron Service, said the purchase involves 42 trailer spaces, a swimming pool and a hot water pool and additional property at the rear of the park which is marked for future development.

Labor Bill Negotiators More Hopeful

Differences Are 'Razor Blade Thin,' Goldwater Reports

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate House conferees, working with unexpected new determination, tried today to resolve the "razor blade thin" differences blocking agreement on compromise labor reform legislation.

None of the 14 negotiators would predict that they would agree on a compromise between the Senate anti-racketeering bill and the tougher House version. But they were much more hopeful than they were last Friday when their talks appeared to reach a dead end.

SEN. BARRY GOLDWATER (R-Ariz.) said the disagreements were no thicker than a razor blade. The conference has approved most sections of a compromise, generally leaning toward the House features.

The negotiations are snagged by the refusal of Senate Democrats to accept without modification House provisions on secondary boycotts, organizational picketing and "no man's land" labor disputes.

Other congressional news:

HIGHWAYS: The House Public Works Committee considered a one penny increase in the federal gasoline tax to replenish nearly exhausted interstate superhighway construction funds.

The one-cent hike, which would be in effect for 22 months, would be coupled with a delayed diversion of some auto excise taxes from the treasury to the highway building fund.

CONTRACTS: A House armed services subcommittee questioned Adm. William M. Fechteler (ret.), World War II hero and former chief of naval operations, probably the last witness in its long investigation of alleged pressure by retired military officers to win weapons orders for the defense companies they now serve.

CHICAGO WATER: Opponents claimed they were close to killing a controversial bill to let Chicago drain more water from Lake Michigan for its sewage system.

Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.), a leading foe, said two close votes Monday showed the opponents were gaining strength.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: Last year I had a serious operation. Last week my doctor told me I needed another operation. When I told my husband, he hit the ceiling. He's been mad ever since.

He says there is always something wrong with me. Lord knows I don't like the idea of getting cut up every year. But what can I do? My husband says it is a lot of expense for nothing.

Should I just forget the operation? My husband keeps telling me I should have married a doctor.

UNDECIDED: Does your husband think that if you married a doctor you could be SICK for nothing? (and if you married a minister, could you be GOOD for nothing?)

If your husband doubts the doctor's diagnosis, he should get the opinion of another doctor. Leave the medical decision to the qualified medical experts.

DEAR ABBY: What do you think of a 52-year-old man who carries a picture of his dancing teacher around in his wallet? He never carries mine. I had some made especially for this purpose and he printed a number underneath it and that's the last I saw of it. He makes a big joke out of everything. Don't you think he is making a fool of me? Should I take the picture out of his wallet and tear it up? Or should I pretend I don't care? HURT WIFE

DEAR HURT: He is making a fool out of himself, not you. Don't tear up the picture (he can get more) and don't pretend you "don't care." Get him in a good mood and then call a spade a spade. (Dig me?) You can catch more flies with sugar than you can with vinegar.

CONFIDENTIAL TO PONY-TAIL: If you are wise you will not try to "make him jealous." That technique went out with the horse and buggy.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

THOUSAND PALMS

By ELIZABETH NELSON

Miss Louise Hyde of nearby Desert Moon Ranch is spending a vacation of several weeks with friends in New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Lemme enjoyed a two-week vacation spent camping at Idyllwild.

On the third and last Sunday that Dewey D. Wallace Jr. preached at the Coachella Valley Presbyterian Church in Coachella, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey D. Wallace Sr., joined his wife, Marion, in attending the 9:30 a. m. services of that church. Following the service they all motored to Idyllwild to join the Henry M. Lemmes, vacationing there, for a picnic lunch and afternoon visit (and to cool off a bit!).

Summer houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Arnett and their daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Knigh-ton, are the Arnett's grandchildren, Cecelia Marie and Donald Misslewhite, of Van Nuys. They are the children of the Arnett's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Misslewhite. Donald has been with his grandparents since June. They are to remain until school starts in September. Both children have enjoyed the vacation and weekend excursions with their grandparents and aunt to Big Bear, into Arizona, and south of the border into Baja, California, in Mexico.

Mrs. Paul DeGaston currently makes periodic visits to their Shangri-La Palms home from their home in Banning, where she and Mr. DeGaston are spending the summer months.

Mrs. A. E. Nelson and daughter, Elizabeth, recently returned from a week's motor trip to the San Francisco Bay area. In and around Oakland they visited with Mrs. Nelson's daughter, Mrs. Beatrice N. Heppie, and with cousins and friends.

In Colma, they visited in the home of Mrs. Anne Duffy, secretary to the executive secretary of the Irrigation Districts Association of California. While there, Miss Nelson attended the 26th Triennial Convention of Sigma Alpha Iota, national professional music fraternity for women of which she is a life member—from Sigma Omicron Chapter of the University of Arkansas. This convention was held in the Mark Hopkins Hotel atop Nob Hill in San Francisco from August 6 to 10, and was the first one that Miss Nelson has had the opportunity to attend.

Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Duffy accompanied Miss Nelson to the Sunday Vesper Service in Palo Alto, following which Mrs. Duffy and Miss Nelson toured the new Stanford University Medical School and Palo Alto Hospital and Rehabilitation Center on the Stanford campus, where "open house" was being held that Sunday. The Nelsons and Mrs. Duffy also enjoyed excursions to San Francisco's famous Chinatown and Fisherman's Wharf; and Miss Nelson found time to visit the office in San Francisco of the Irrigation Districts Association of California.

Enroute home, the Nelsons stopped in Sunnyvale for a brief visit with former high school mates of Miss Nelson from Chelsea, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eubank and their three young sons.

Mrs. Frank L. Bruder is spending this week in Long Beach in order to visit daily with Mr. Bruder, who is a patient in the Veterans' Administration Hospital there.

Herbert Hass Named Agent for Insurance Firm

Herbert Hass, Village resident for the past nine years, has been appointed agent for the Metropolitan Insurance Co., it was announced today.

Hass has been assigned the territory in and surrounding Palm Springs, and will specialize in life, accident and sickness and group insurance. He will maintain offices at his home for the present time.

Main offices for the company, which he termed the largest insurance company in the country, are in New York and San Francisco.

A former member of the Palm Springs Unified School District's board of education, Hass was manager of the Del Hai-Mo Lodge for eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Halle and young daughters, Karen and Patricia, of Los Angeles, are frequent weekend residents this summer in their new home on Calle Helene in the Shangri-La Palms subdivision. They spend every possible weekend here, and all are getting brown desert tans—and the girls are learning to swim well.

Mrs. Frank L. Bruder is spending this week in Long Beach in order to visit daily with Mr. Bruder, who is a patient in the Veterans' Administration Hospital there.

Hitler's Blitzkrieg in Poland Roared 20 Years Ago Today

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG

LONDON — (UPI) — At 5:45 on the morning of Friday, Sept. 1, 1939, the "Hellschreiber" teletype printer of the official German news agency in the Berlin office of United Press began grinding out a communique.

"Proclamation to the German armed forces," it began.

Over the streets of Berlin a gray rain-swept dawn was breaking. The few early workers hurrying along the broad, empty expanse of Unter den Linden saw the street lamps go out and continued on their way.

THEY DID NOT know it would be six years before the lights went on again in Europe.

They did not know that at that moment two air fleets of Nazi Heinkel and Dornier bombers were sweeping across Germany's eastern frontiers to unload destruction and death on sleeping and defenseless Polish cities.

IN THE GREAT mausoleum-like Reich Chancellery, which he had built in the hope of perpetuating himself for all time in concrete and yellow plaster and bronze, the man who signed that communique, Adolf Hitler, Fuehrer and Reich Chancellor and Supreme Commander of the German Armed Forces, went to bed. He had just signed the proclamation which set his armies and air fleets in motion across the Polish frontier and unleashed the second World War.

WHAT TOUCHED off the crisis? Since he came to power in 1933 Hitler had rearmament Germany illegally, reoccupied the demilitarized Rhineland, seized Austria, Memel and Czechoslovakia.

Now he was demanding restoration of the Free City of Danzig and a road through the corridor of Polish territory that separated East Prussia from the rest of Germany.

EARLIER THAT summer, Hitler's Propaganda Minister, little club-footed Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, taking the salute at a mass torchlight demonstration of thousands of swastika-toting Nazis in Danzig, told this correspondent with supreme confidence: "There will be no war. Britain is bluffing. Anyhow, she is too cowardly and weak to fight."

Hitler believed that, too. Eleven days before he gave the order to his armies to march into Poland, Hitler pulled out what he believed to be his ace-in-the-hole. On the sultry night of Aug. 21 he rocked the world with the announcement that he was sending his Foreign Minister, former champagne salesman Joachim von Ribbentrop, to Moscow to sign a non-aggression pact with the Soviets.

FROM THAT moment war became inevitable. The pact meant Hitler could attack Poland without fear that Russia would come to its aid.

On Aug. 24 Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told the British House of Commons that — pact or no pact—Britain would fulfill her treaty pledges to defend Poland if she were attacked.

That same day the British and French began leaving Berlin.

NET DAY, Aug. 25, Nazi Germany secretly completed its mobilization. At the same time, Hitler made a last desperate bid to bribe Britain into staying neutral when he attacked Poland.

He summoned Britain's ambassador, Sir Neville Henderson, to the Chancellery and offered him a treaty under which Nazi Germany would "guarantee" with its own armed forces the integrity of the British Empire. In return, he demanded restoration of

ONLY CHURCHILL

REMAINS OF WW II

'BIG FIVE' LEADERS

LONDON (UPI) — Adolf Hitler killed himself in the stinking ruins of his Berlin bunker while the boom of Russian guns tolled the death knell of his empire—Benito Mussolini was shot and strung up by the heels in an Italian gas station—

Franklin D. Roosevelt died with victory in Europe only days away—

Joseph Stalin lived long enough to plunge peace into the cold war—

Only Winston Churchill of the "big five" is still alive. At the age of 85, he spent the last summer months of 1959 cruising around the Mediterranean on a Greek millionaire's yacht.

Germany's former colonies and a free hand to attack Poland.

ON AUG. 26 the German people, still blissfully unaware of the crisis about to engulf them and, ultimately, the whole world, received their first rude warning of what was in store. The government announced cancellation of the annual Nazi Party Congress at Nuremberg.

A still ruder awakening came the next day — Sunday — when the Berlin papers published a government announcement imposing strict rationing on food, clothing, shoes and soap.

On Aug. 26, Henderson flew back to Berlin with a note from Chamberlain accepting the broad idea of an Anglo-German "slate wiping," but reiterating Britain's commitments to Poland.

BUT ON AUG. 29 Hitler upped his demands. He handed Henderson another note announcing that he would be satisfied with the return of the city of Danzig and a road through the so-called Polish corridor. He demanded immediate surrender of the whole corridor by Poland and gave the Polish government 24 hours to send a plenipotentiary to Berlin to sign the surrender.

The German ultimatum was passed on to Poland, but she already had ordered general mobilization herself.

AT MIDNIGHT on Aug. 31 Henderson drove to the Nazi Foreign Office, told Ribbentrop that Poland had been informed of Hitler's demands and added that the British government considered it impossible for a Polish plenipotentiary to reach Berlin on time. Ribbentrop's answer was to read to Henderson in German a long document outlining what would have been Germany's terms if a Polish plenipotentiary had reached Berlin on time.

Late the next evening, Aug. 31, the text of Hitler's terms was published. At that very moment the official German news agency put out an utterly untrue report of an attack by Polish irregulars on the Gleiwitz radio station in Silesia. This provided Hitler with his excuse to announce that the Nazi armed forces were "firing back."

THE INVASION orders already had been given. At 5:45 a. m. on Sept. 1 World War II began.

At 9 a. m. on Sunday, Sept. 3, the British ambassador paid a final call on Ribbentrop and handed him an ultimatum warning that if Germany did not withdraw her troops within two hours, Britain would consider herself in a state of war with Germany.

At exactly 11 a. m., the Nazi radio broke into its program and announced that Britain had declared war. France joined her later that afternoon.

BUT MANY GERMANS still refused to believe that warm autumn day that Britain or France would really fight. "England is just bluffing," they reassured each other.

But this was no bluff. Stalingrad and El Alamein, Stilly and Normandy and the ruined bombed-blasted hulks of a hundred German cities were the final proof that this was indeed for real.

County's New Dog License Law Stalled

Lack of Metal Tags Causes Official To Delay Ordinance

Riverside County's strict new dog licensing ordinance became law last week, but enforcement will be delayed for lack of metal tags for canine collars.

Enforcement of the licensing program has been delegated by the Board of Supervisors to Dr. Everett M. Stone, county health officer, and his staff.

HE HAD ORDERED the dog tags and printed forms for use in registration and licensing of dogs, but the materials failed to arrive. Dr. Stone announced that the manufacturer will be unable to deliver the license tags in time to start their distribution before Sept. 10.

The new code applies only to the county's unincorporated areas, as the various cities have their own dog licensing jurisdiction. City and county dog tags already being worn will be recognized until their expiration dates for the convenience of dog owners who have paid a 1959 fee prior to moving into Riverside County unincorporated territory.

UNDER THE NEW law the fee will be $3 for male dogs and spayed females, and $5 for unsayed female dogs. Licenses issued now will be effective until July 1, 1960.

All dogs four months or older will be required to be licensed if their owners live in the areas outside the cities of Riverside County. Newcomers will have 30 days in which to license their dogs.

IF A DOG TAG is lost, another can be bought for the rest of the fiscal year for $1. Kennels housing not more than 10 dogs will be required to pay a $5 annual license; those with 11 to 20 dogs will pay $10 and any kennels housing more than 20 canines will be subject to a $20 fee.

When a dog reaches the age of four months he will be subject to the licensing requirement.

Only One Way For Desert Taxpayers To Get Value For County Tax Dollars

Supervisor George Berkey of the Fourth (desert) District is one of the most diligent able and conscientious members of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors.

But there are some things impossible for even the hardest working of Supervisors.

Consider the complaint before the Board of Supervisors of the lady from Sky Valley, near Desert Hot Springs, that taxes being paid by the residents of this new tract on government land are not being "properly used" as reported recently in a news story in THE DESERT SUN:

"We don't mind paying," said Mrs. Minette E. Grierson, "but we don't get anything for it."

"We should receive some benefit from the tax money collected from us. We had to build our own roads and maintain them. We have no sheriff protection. The sheriff in Desert Hot Springs does not have time to cover this area, so we were informed, and we had to hire a private patrolman to scout this area after a number of thefts occurred."

"True," concluded Mrs. Grierson, "we bought this land from the government at low prices, but it has taken quite a bit of hard work and money to develop it."

We do not doubt that every statement made by Mrs. Grierson is based on fact. Moreover the same complaint, and many additional faults and similar experiences could be cited by hundreds if not thousands of other County taxpayers in this Desert District.

But certainly Supervisor Berkey is not responsible for, nor can he alone change the antiquated, unbalanced and unjust setup of county government which brings about such inadequacies, expenses and hardships for desert taxpayers.

Although Mr. Berkey represents a district comprising more than two-thirds of the area and annually paying more than 40 per cent of the total County tax bill he has only one vote out of five in the matter of County expenditures and distribution of funds.

It is a matter of record, and has been for years on end, that the majority of the four Riverside area Supervisors budget-wise "apportion" only a small fraction of the tax funds collected from desert residents annually to be returned to this particular district for expenditures locally, the bulk being disbursed in the County seat.

Since no names were mentioned and no blame directed towards our Desert Supervisor it is apparent that Mrs. Grierson recognized (as by now do almost all desert taxpayers) where the fault lies and directed her complaint to the board majority.

Everyone in this area appreciates, applauds and sympathizes with her earnest endeavor.

But it becomes plainer with each passing day that the millions of dollars collected in county taxes each year from desert property owners will never be "properly used" until the map of Riverside County is changed to make the Fourth District into a NEW Desert County with its own board of Five Desert Supervisors expending ALL taxes paid by Desert residents for their sole and direct benefit.

Then, and only then, will desert taxpayers receive full value, dollar for dollar, for every cent paid in County taxes.

Mr. Veritas Writes Some Memos

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Vernon J. Veritas will never get rich by telling people disagreeable truths which they ought to hear, but the old truth-teller thinks he has a duty to do it anyhow. Just the other day his outgoing mail contained such notes as:

To the folks at home: If your community is average American in nature, there is a seasonal paradox in progress. There are persons lined up in search of jobs, relief payments and free food subsidies for the "distressed."

AND YET, A FEW miles out in the country, there are migrant workers who have been brought in from distant States and foreign countries to harvest the "stump" crops which Americans are too lazy to bend down and pick. The migrants are living under appalling slum conditions and working for the kind of pay which will never alleviate their poverty. Moreover, they are harvesting crops which, although sometimes useful and delicious, are falling upon an economy of overabundance and waste.

Mr. Veritas declares that Government, with its bureaucrats and politicians, is the only benefactor from this preposterous and pitiful state of affairs which will continue until the harvest season ends in the late autumn.

GOVERNMENT, AND Government alone benefits by the misery of these migrants and the mockery of this paradox.

Khrushchev will soon be looking for examples of failures in the American system. He will see it if (a) in your town there are workless persons, (b) in your rural environs there are imported workers harvesting unneeded crops, (c) in your State there are politicians and bureaucrats bawling upon the misery of both the workless and the workers and (d) in your community there is no leader who is brave enough to be unpopular by pointing out these wretched truths.

TO SECRETARY OF State Herter: You are back in Washington after many weeks away from your desk and you are telling us how "disturbed" you are about the situation in Laos.

The rest of us have to go to the wall map and trace an ignorant finger across the Pacific, south of Japan, south of Formosa, south of China and inland from the Southeast Asia coast. There the finger will find a tiny land which in recent times has been loomed over by French imperialists, Japanese imperialists and now Communist imperialists.

MR. HERTER, SAYS Mr. Veritas, would have trouble naming a time in history when Laos, or any small Southeast Asian country lived in halcyon days of no summering war, no threatening tyrant at the border, no uprisings at home.

Secretary Herter would be telling an important truth if he said that in the Western Hemisphere, and only under policies which used to be called American "isolationism," have small countries been able to survive. Any American statesman who looks for Western Hemisphere conditions in Southeast Asia is looking for things that never were—and never will be.

TO PRESIDENT Eisenhower: Your visit to Germany, Britain and France must — and should — stir golden memories of trials and triumphs in World War II, but (be honest, Ike) is that all? The Britain which Ike saved from the land-locked forces of Hitler, is now in greater peril and in far worse internal shape. Long before Gen. Eisenhower reached Britain, the RAF had won the Battle of Britain from the Luftwaffe, the Royal Navy had thwarted a German invasion from the Channel ports, the British army under Montgomery had beaten the great Rommel at El Alamein.

SOMEDAY, SAYS Mr. Veritas, we're going to have historians honest enough to question the great favor which American armed intervention did for Europe in the 1940's. The wonderful Britain of Winston Churchill later went Socialist and today is losing its youth by migration at a high rate per diem.

Having saved Germany from Hitler, we now face problems which relate entirely to a reversal of that rescue performance. Only when we make Germany once more strong enough to fight Russia, do we dare bring our own boys home.

AND FRANCE? THIS key country to the NATO alliance has contributed more traitors and less troops to the joint effort than any other nation. President de Gaulle demands the right to become an atomic power and to exploit Algeria with its Sahara oil. If we don't accord him these rights, he'll take them anyhow. As to Russia, Ike's ally of World War II, it is best to assume the silence of charity. These, says Mr. Veritas, are some thoughts which President Eisenhower ought to entertain before he gets us any deeper into European affairs.

Vernon J. Veritas, as has been noted, won't win any prizes or popularity contests with his truth-tellings ways. But if he doesn't say these things—nobody will. —Holmes Alexander

'If You'd Let Go, We'd Get Somewhere!'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Oh, it's a long, long while From May to December, But the days grow short When you reach September.

September Song — one of my favorites.

Planned to get up early and dabble my toes in the surf, a sort of he-September Morn.

But wisely decided that was a most gruesome thought and stayed in bed until time to fish the morning paper out of the shrubbery.

THERE ARE OTHER songs which have to do with September.

One of them, "September in the Rain," is also pleasant to the ear. It has a soothing suggestion of coolness. Especially when it's 104 outside.

And I believe a September rain would be a little late in the season to bring out the crickets. So it wouldn't do any harm.

SEPTEMBER is a busy month insofar as special days and weeks go. In fact, the entire month is set aside for Sons and Daughters. National Dog Week comes along some time this month and I think there's a Better Breakfast Week. (I sometimes have hot dogs with my eggs for breakfast.)

AS FOR DAYS there is, of course, Labor Day, Admission Day (in California), Gold Star Mothers Day, toward the end of the month, Citizens Day, many others including Mothers' Day.

I know, madam, I know. The big one is the second Sunday in June.

I'm thinking of the second Mothers' Day. That comes in September. That's when schools re-open.

'SEPTEMBER also has its own picture. Banned in Boston, of course. Remember September Morn?

That was the shocker of those days. It drew disapproving gasps from the many and approving remarks from those who said that they, at least, could appreciate art.

That picture made countless calendars which were put on walls in offices where the customers couldn't see them but the male members of the staff could.

THEY WERE ALSO in barber shops where the gentlemen having their hair moved could ascertain the date.

And no newspaper composing room was complete without one. But just like the reading matter of those days compared with the present output, those calendars were tame when lined up against some of today's numbers.

SPEAKING OF today's output of books reminds me of how Ivern Boyett defines "Escape Literature."

It's what many of today's writers seem determined to do, he says.

I guess I must really be an old-timer.

I can remember when you spoke away to read a hot book and came to a torrid passage, you can into a flock of —

But now they call a spade for what it is — an implement to turn over dirt.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Have just taken inventory of my notes and find most of the news is good:

This morning while I was sitting on the boardwalk at Deauville, who should walk by but Mr. Rubirosa, the international playboy. He wore a yellow crew-neck sweater. He was accompanied by three ladies and a miniature black Chihuahua on an expensive leash.

"THEY SAY HE will divorce the third one from the left," murmured the waiter, pouring me a coffee and spilling most of it on the table. Our beach waiter pours nearly everything on the table. He is so busy watching the bikini action.

"What about the other two?" "He is not married to them—yet."

Our waiter is a Frenchman with smooth French acceptance of these worldly matters. He misses nothing. Tells all.

WE WERE STOPPED today by a French motorcycle policeman. He followed me for four blocks. Unnerving me until I was soft as Camembert.

Then he waved me down. Did I know I had gone through a stop sign? Did I realize this could cause an accident? "I didn't see it. I really didn't." "I did not see it. But I wish I could think of something better to say. It makes you feel like a fool."

"Go and sin no more," he said. Or something equivalent in French that I could not understand. Five minutes later I could think of all kinds of brilliant remarks I could have made. It is discouraging.

WE ARE DRIVING a Renault — the Dauphine model, the second best seller in the foreign car field in the States.

It is an excellent car and chews up very little gasoline. This is good because the gasoline in France goes for about 90 cents a gallon.

I made a strong pitch to the Renault press agent for the new Caravelle which goes on the American market this winter. It is a sports model, very racy. I figured I could hold my own at Deauville with Rubirosa with such a car.

"But I only have one car," he said. "Only ministers and other politicians are getting the advance models."

HE SAID I COULD have one for five days. "After that I must lend it to Simone Simon."

I did not want to drive back from the Normandy coast to return a car in five days. But he lent it to me for a day. I had my picture taken in it.

I look very chic. An international playboy type. If I had been driving the Caravelle, I think the cop would have thought twice before he hauled me down. The police are on the side of the rich.

WE HAVE BEEN driving in the back country of Normandy. (I have my teen-age daughter along. She adores the Dauphine.) She drives and I read the Michelin Guide aloud.

"Marie Harel. This name — I guess it says 'little known,' 'peu connu,' what does that mean?" "I don't know. You know I don't know French."

"For heavens sake. I pay a fortune to send you to school and now you don't know French. Why?" "Please! You're always cutting me."

WELL, YOU WOULD think they would learn something. Oh, well. "Little known name is that of a lady farmer (I guess it looks feminine)—lady farmer who, about the 19th — (century). I think it says — made the cheese universally known as Camembert. That is interesting."

"I'm hungry," she said. So we stopped at one of those places with two tables on the sidewalk and called for the menu. If they can't learn French they can at least learn to eat French.

"You order," she said. "I can't read the menu. How do you say 'peanut butter'?"

HOW ABOUT THAT? Ten thousand miles and one thousand dollars and they want to know, "How do you say peanut butter?"

I had some Camembert. I can't say "peanut butter" in French myself. She had a ham sandwich and a Coca Cola. An international child. Good grief!

Earl Recalls Some Memories

NEW YORK — It is vacation time and I have been thinking of places I'd like to go back to ... I'd like to go back to the first grade at the Rockford, Ohio, public school which I entered about 1914 — but I can't, for that school has been torn down, though the first-grade teacher, Clara Penn, still stands ...

I'd like to go back to Graduation Night at Rockford High and to all the "kids," now a little gray, whom I drove around with afterward, in a car called "the Whip-pet."

And to the ATO fraternity house at Columbus the night they gave me my pin (I wonder where it is now?) after initiating hell out of me ... to my first plane ride, Akron-to-N.Y., hoping for a job on a N.Y. newspaper ... to the city room of the N.Y. Post (a whole year later) when I first read my by-line on a N.Y. paper, on a story about Maxwell Bodenheim ... to the old Onyx Room on 52nd St. on New Year's Eve, 1926, when Mike Riley and Ed Farley played "The Music Goes 'Round and 'Round" and Rosemary Lyons and I decided to get married ...

I'd like to go back to my Greenwich Village apartment, the night the postman brought me a special delivery letter with a check for $250 for my first magazine article ...

To a newsstand at 54th St. and Seventh Av. the morning I bought a Saturday Evening Post and discovered my name on the cover ... to a table at 21 when Morris Ernst witnessed a contract which made me a syndicated columnist ... to the old Club 18 across the street where Jackie Gleason used to be an unknown comedian ...

I had meant this column to be different, but sometimes my brain or its reasonable facsimile drives my fingers where I hadn't intended them to go.

I was going to say I'd like to go back to the 1939 World's Fair to see Eleanor Holm swim in the Aquascope and to talk to Mike Todd at Gay New Orleans ... or back to Leon & Eddie's Sunday Celebrity Nights ...

Or back to L.A. to Lucy's where Jane Russell introduced me to the Moscow Mule, the start of the vodka surge ... Or to sitting at Doney's in Rome eating jelly doughnuts or standing at Siegi's bar in London, or to a hundred other places ... but if you have some "I'd like to go back to's" yourself, you know that you'd principally like to go back to your youth and that your youth may be interesting principally to you.

Age is only good in whisky.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL ... Eddie Fisher and Liz phoned realtor Max Reibelsen from London to find 'em a roomy, furnished town house here. (They arrive Sept. 9) ... France Nuyen's first-grade teacher, Clara Penn, a daily visitor to Marion Brando's "Fugitive Kind" set, but he won't allow photos of 'em together ... Larry Puck and Marion Marlowe were at the Harwyn, first time since his illness.

Yul Brynner will get top billing in the U.S. in "Solomon and Sheba," Gina Lollobrigida gets it in Europe ... Director John Ford isn't talking to his old pal, Ward Bond ("Wagon Train") Bond, after Bond took liberties with Ford's new Thunderbird ... Dean Martin's taping his TV show at night 'cause his guest star, Frank Sinatra, likes to work that way ... Barney Ross will visit Israel next month.

Jeanette MacDonald'll title her autobiography "The Iron Butterfly" ... John Ericson is the top candidate to replace Paul Newman in "Sweet Bird of Youth" (when Newman's contract expires) ... Shoe magnate Harry Karl (Marie McDonald's ex) became a grandpa ... Elvis Presley's dad (who returned to Germany last week to join his son) was told by Elvis not to change anything in their Memphis home till he gets out of the Army.

Dancer Gower Champion, who went to Moscow with the Ed Sullivan troupe, wasn't allowed to photograph a stewardess aboard a Russian plane ... Harry Belafonte, who's turned film producer, wants Sidney Poitier for his next movie ... Pretty Anita Bryant, a Wilson Girl nominee, returns to the Dick Clark TV'er Sept. 5.

EARL'S PEARLS ...

Some folks don't have many faults — but they sure make the most of those they've got. — P-K Sideliner.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH ... It's Irma Washout's line: "Thank goodness the government only predicts the weather, and doesn't regulate it!"

WISH I'D SAID THAT ...

The way prices are now, you're lucky if you can make ONE end meet.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Equity to Probe Beach Theater

HOLLYWOOD — Actors' Equity, legitimate theatre union for players, is investigating the producer star of a beach resort theatre near LA who got so "stinkin' - from - drinkin'" just before opening curtain one night this past weekend the other actors had to give him a cold shower before he could stagger onstage — also, because his boozin' is eating up the profits.

Actor Barry Coe — pardon me, Cpl. Barry Coe! — drew his first behind - the - camera job. He directed an Army training film during his two-week Reserve stretch at Fort MacArthur, Calif.

BOBBY DARTIN stayed onstage for a whole hour past closing time after his Cloister closing on the Sunset Strip. The singer joined with the boys in the orchestra for a jam session, standing up to play the piano and sing. It was better than opening night. The customers, all 300, stayed on to enjoy it, following which Cloister curators Skip Trask, Shelly Kasten and Jack Mikolas invited all 300 to their bachelor bungalow in the hills. All 300 went, too, and the session resumed swingin' till sun-up and beyond — to breakfast!

Tony Perkins says: "Marlon Brando is right. I've studied Stanislawski so I guess that makes me a Method actor. My method is to grab the dough and run!"

MRS. ROOSEVELT wasn't able to attend the black-tie affair but among the Roosevelt's regouting to FDR's favorite song, "Home on the Range," were Jimmy of the Hyde Park Roosevelt and George of the Oyster Bay branch of the clan.

Hayes had a six-piece orchestra perched on his canopied roof, where we dined and danced, and three strolling combos on the other three levels. I guess you could call it The Party of the Year.

CHANNEL CHATTER — TV actor Don Burnett had to cut his planned two-week honeymoon in New York with Gia Scala to one night in Lake Arrowhead, Calif., because Gia was called back the day after the wedding to screen-test for the role of Curt Jurgens' gal in Columbia Pictures' "I Aim at the Stars," formerly "The Werther von Braun Story."

Comedian Joey Bishop will play his first villain in a Richard Diamond segment, in which he'll menace David Janssen. He shoots here Sept. 10. When he'll cut right out of it for more comedies at the Cloister.

Diane Baker's dad, a Chrysler dealer, dealt her out of guessting on one of Pat Boone's shows — for Chevy ... Brian Kelly got the message on his new Ford-sponsored series and swapped his Plymouth for a Ford.

NEW TYPE HIT-RUN — KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — The Cooke County sheriff's office reported there had been three arrests for hit and run. "Hit and run?" asked a reporter. "Yeah," he was told. "They were hittin' the bottle and runnin' off at the mouth."

DOUBLE TROUBLE — SWINDON, England — (UPI) — Leonard Price was captured by police after escaping while handcuffed Monday, and he discovered all he'd accomplished was to get himself in even deeper trouble. Police charged him with stealing the handcuffs.

Quotes From the News

LONDON — President Eisenhower, stating his belief that "peace is imperative in our time" in an unprecedented television fireside chat with British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan:

"If we are to have a summit (conference), Khrushchev must understand that as you and I do."

LONDON — Macmillan, warning of the danger of war in the off-the-cuff television conversation:

"The first war happened largely by mistake. The second was different. It could not be prevented. Now we are in a situation where we might drift into something by mistake."

LONDON — An American delegate to an international space congress, revealing that Soviet delegates seemed "amused" by reports that America's seven astronauts had sold the story of "the first space flight":

"I got the impression they were convinced the first story would be given out free by a Russian over radio Moscow."

SYSTEM OF WATERWAYS approved for California by 1959 legislature—but which still need the mandate of the people—is delineated in this graphic map. To be built at a cost of $1.75-billion

WATER PROGRAM APPROVAL TO BE UP TO VOTERS IN 1960

SACRAMENTO — Governor Edmund G. Brown has signed what he described as the "crowning achievement" of the 1959 session of the Legislature, the $1.75 billion bond issue legislation to finance a state-wide water development program.

At the same time, he announced the signature of a number of other major items of water legislation, including authorizations of New Hogan and Black Butte Dams, and the Sacramento Valley Irrigation Canal System; two bills directed at the protection of the Sacramento-San Joaquin Delta; three statutes continuing waiver of diligence with respect to State water applications, and amendments to the Davis-Grunsky Act to help financing of local water projects.

AS HE SIGNED the bond issue legislation, SB 1106, to be known as the Burns-Porter Act, Governor Brown noted that "my signature does not itself insure the creation of the great water program which California so urgently requires."

Observing that final approval rests in the hands of the State's voters at the general election in November, 1960, he urged the electorate to listen to arguments on both sides, and to listen critically.

"WE SHOULD ALL remember that there are those among us who will always find a difficulty for any solution," he said. "This, I am confident, is a solution — a great solution worthy of the greatness of this State and its peoples."

The measure, drafted by Administration water experts and handled in the Legislature by Senator Hugh Burns, Fresno Democrat, and Assemblyman Carley Porter, Compton Democrat, calls for a $1.75 billion bond issue to finance water development in California to the end of the century.

It contemplates one of the largest single projects in the history of man, a network of dams, canals and other works comparable in scope to the Tennessee Valley Authority and the Central Valley Project.

THE KEY DAM in the project, at Oroville on the Feather River, will itself be the highest dam in the United States, rising 735 feet top Hoover, Grand Coulee, Shasta and Trinity dams.

"This will remove the last great obstacle to California's full growth and prosperity," the Governor declared. "By 1965, this project will be serving areas with a population of 21,000,000 out of an estimated total State population of 35,000,000 — more than twice the present population of California."

"We are already late in getting started because of the decade of argument in the Legislature," he said. "But with determination and hard work, this project will be completed in time to perform its vital functions in the economy of California."

HE STRESSED THAT the bonds will be paid off completely by revenues from the project itself, except for recreation features.

"The only items chargeable to the general taxpayer are the recreation facilities in the program, estimated to be about three per cent of the total," he said. "Everything else will come back from those who use the water and power, and those living in areas not served by the project will not have to pay the costs."

He said all Department of Water Resources studies of economic feasibility show that the program will unquestionably support itself.

THE LEGISLATION, in addition to providing funds for the construction of the Feather River dam, the Delta protection and San Joaquin Valley Drainage works, and the transportation system to the South, also calls for expansion of the program when required by building further storage facilities in the North Coastal area.

Banning Set For Big Fete On Birthday

75th Anniversary To Feature Parade, Barbecue, Events

BANNING — Shades of Calamity Jane, Buffalo Bill and Annie Oakley will cavort here Sept. 10-12, when the City of Banning celebrates its 75th birthday with a parade, a street dance, an old-fashioned style show, a barbecue and a host of other events.

Even if no one else enters the line-up for the community's parade before the deadline on Sept. 5, there'll be a couple of hours of looking for the curb-sitters.

ALREADY ENTERED in the parade are:

The Twentynine Palms Marine Corps Band with their Mounted Color Guard.

Joe Toutain, Constable of Banning for the last 44 years, grand marshal. Riding with him in a buggy driven by George Bailliff, will be one of Joe's oldest Indian friends. Honor Guards for the Grand Marshall are Ed Palmer, president of the Saddle Club, and Harry Moore, Banning's police chief.

FOLLOWING WILL BE a group of Indians from the Morongo Indian Reservation, then the Missionaries and Franciscan Fathers. Charras and Spanish Riders will fall in line, and Paulino Weaver, the first white settler in the Pass area, will be characterized by Bob Bailliff.

Following will be floats, depicting early settlers, a stage coach, an equestrian group, forest rangers and an Idyllwild pack string, a cavalry group from the Lancaster - Lake Hughes area are slated to ride and the March Base Air Force Band is also slated. Sherman Institute's band has also agreed to participate.

PALM SPRINGS' Betsy Ross has loaned the paraders an authentic Spanish costume which Harry Boyer will wear in riding the parade route.

A trail-riding group and a team of rodeo riders are scheduled and an old-fashioned callopie will play while an antique train will ramble down the parade's Ramsey Street route.

BANNING'S MOUNTED Police will patrol the route, judges are Congressman John Phillips and Peggy Spear from Banning, Judge Arthur Manning from Barstow and "Mac" McDonald from Palm Springs.

Area Resident Dies in North

Mrs. Bertie Purnel, 85, a former, longtime resident of Pass area, died at her Porterville, Calif., home Monday, according to word received here today.

Mrs. Purnel was a resident of Beaumont and Palm Springs from 1926 to 1943.

SCIENTISTS WARN OF NUCLEAR SUBS

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — A scientific group has warned that many nations soon will be able to build nuclear submarines which could launch "a devastating missile attack against cities hundreds and even thousands of miles from the seacoast."

"The probability will become steadily greater in the future," the scientists said, "that an international mischief-maker will be able with impunity to initiate a nuclear holocaust."

In all likelihood, they said, the attacking submarines would escape without even being identified, and the attacked nation would not know who hit it.

The warning was issued by the Committee on Oceanography of the National Academy of Sciences in a report on international cooperation at sea.

The report, just distributed, said "nations must find some way to live with the new threat of nuclear-powered submarines armed with long range weapons."

Ike Approves New Veteran Pension Law

Needy Veterans Gain Help in New Bill; Widows to Benefit

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower has signed a veterans pension bill that will cost the government an extra 10 billion dollars over the next 40 years.

The new law liberalizes pensions for needy veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean war with non-service-connected disabilities, and for their widows and orphans.

THE NEW PROVISIONS set up a sliding scale of payments based upon need and dependents to replace the "all or nothing" flat payments made now. Pensioners with the least private income would get the highest payments.

Nearly 70 per cent of the one and a quarter million veterans, widows and orphans now on the pension rolls could get increases. No one drawing a pension when the new system takes effect would be forced to take a cut.

THE NEW SYSTEM puts widows and orphans of World War I and Korean veterans on the same footing as World War I veterans in determining eligibility for pensions. This could add 25,000 cases to the pension rolls as soon as the law takes effect.

Actually, the new system is designed to produce long-range savings in veterans pensions totalling 12 billion dollars by the year 2000. But the widows' provision would add 22 billion dollars, making the overall extra cost 10 billion dollars by the turn of the century.

Sub-Teen Agers Compete in Beauty Contest at Party

Future Miss Universe contestants attended the birthday party of Linda Louis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Saul Louis, when she celebrated her eleventh birthday last Wednesday. The party was held at the family home at 2133 East Amado.

The girls wore swim suits and competed in a mock beauty contest around the Louis pool. Adding color were the Japanese parasols which decorated the party area and which were given to the girls as party souvenirs.

Several party games were played followed by the serving of refreshments and a beautifully decorated three layer birthday cake in chocolate and gold.

Among those wishing Linda

"Happy Birthday" were Roseona Popiel, Laurie Needleman, Marty Wasserman, Regina Radcliff, Pam Hern, Toby Smolker and Carol Belgard.

The Louis family and Popiels have recently moved to the desert from Los Angeles. Louis and Popiel are associated with Palm Springs Imports in Cathedral City.

Use Dollars And Sense on Coed's Togs

NEW YORK — What should a college freshman spend on her wardrobe? It depends on the size of her budget, her need for clothes, and condition of carry-over outfits from high school.

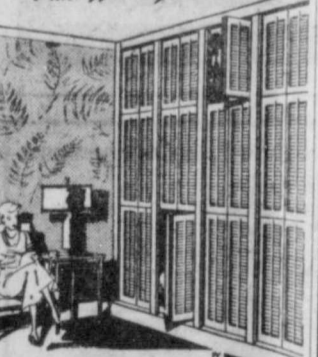

The college board of a New York department store advises taking the following items:

A three-piece flannel suit, about $85. A camel wrap polo coat, priced at about $50. A black and white hounds-tooth check wool sheath, about $25. Plaid slacks and color-coordinated sweater — perhaps $15 for the slacks and $10 for the sweater. A party dress in red wool or corduroy, costing around $35. Up to $30 worth of accessories to suit individual needs.

If a girl has some of the items suggested, then she should substitute, say a dressy coat or double-duty rain coat for the polo coat, or winter Bermuda shorts instead of slacks. If she wants to splurge on some item, perhaps a fake fur coat, fur-trimmed coat, or inexpensive real pelt, such as raccoon or opossum, she should select a less expensive suit or dress.

Above all, consider the type of college and its location, the board said. A small country girls' school may require more sweaters, skirts and sports clothes, while a co-educational college is bound to be more dressy.

Institute-Fiesta Plans Open House

Mrs. Roy De Mond Lay, founder-director of the Idyllwild Institute - Fiesta, and her board, are busily making plans for the Institute's gala finale round-up reunion for Thursday, September 3.

At this Open House affair, 10-2:30 p. m., all attendants at the Institute's nine-week course for lay women leaders, all friends and visitors, will be welcomed at the Fiesta Lodge, Marian View Drive, in Idyllwild. Mrs. Stanley H. Walker, hostess, is planning a special buffet luncheon to be served between 12-1:30. Reservations may be had by writing Mrs. Walker at Box 245, Idyllwild Institute - Fiesta, Idyllwild, or by phoning Olive 9-2897.

The Institute, founded in 1953 by Mrs. Lay, prominent California club leader and community service volunteer, author of Handbook on Club Ethics for Junior Membership, and Advisor's Manual for Clubwomen which are used by clubs nationally, had its first four day session on the campus of the Idyllwild Arts Foundation.

This pioneer venture, the first of its kind in the United States, provides a training center for the lay woman leader so that her volunteer service will be more effective and meaningful in her local community. The response from women who are willing to accept the challenge of leadership has been so great that this year for the first time a nine weeks summer course was made available to all women's organizations, patriotic, business and professional, service church, political, educational and women's clubs.

The Institute, a non-profit, incorporated organization, is in the process of establishing its own headquarters on a beautiful wooded, six acre estate in Idyllwild. In this setting, the program this year has presented such distinguished leaders as Loyd Wright, past president of the International Bar Association, who gave the dedication address at the Lodge on July 5.

During the week of World Affairs considerations, Randall Henderson, founder and publisher of the Desert Magazine, discussed the critical need for conservation of our national resources. Dr. Joseph Baccus, Professor of Speech at Redlands University, presented the case for Democracy in Action, dealing with parliamentary law ident of the International Bar Association, who gave the dedication address at the Lodge on July 5.

Another exciting first for the club this year was Youth Appreciation Week during which eighteen teenage girls were entertained at the Fiesta Lodge for a week. These girls came under the sponsorship of clubs such as Altrusa, Soroptimist, Business Professional Women's Clubs, and the Auxiliary of the Pasadena High School Girls Club, who selected their vacation-guests on the basis of deserved procedures in every day life.

With the grand reunion of September 3, the Institute will formally close its classes on Friday, September 4. During the fall and spring, the Fiesta Lodge will be open to organizations for board and club affairs.

honors. The girls came from Southern California, representing San Diego, Santa Barbara, Modesto, Pasadena, Cathedral City, San Bernardino, Barstow and Riverside.

Following a honeymoon spent at the Tropical Palms Motel in Desert Hot Springs, a gift of the groom's parents, the couple will make their home in Tujunga where he is associated with the Fred Krozier Richfield Station. The senior Temple is manager of the Shell Oil Station in Desert Hot Springs.

Desert B&PW Meets Tonight

Tonight at the regular meeting of the Desert Business and Professional Women's Club of Cathedral City plans will be completed for the forthcoming potluck supper which is to be held on September 15 at the Town Hall in Cathedral City.

Desert B&PW will be honored to have Southern District President E. Caroline Hawkins as guest speaker.

The meeting tonight will be held at 36-957 Melrose Drive at 7:30 p.m.

Miss Delaney Is Bride of Gary Temple

Diane Ellen Delaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Delaney of Desert Hot Springs, and Gary Temple, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Temple of Desert Hot Springs, were married Saturday, August 29 at 3 p.m., in Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church in Tujunga.

The groom spent four years in

Trackmans in Montana Earthquake

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Trackman have returned to their home in Palm Springs after an exciting vacation trip, which found them in Yellowstone during the earthquake.

Flying to Calgary they were picked up at the airport by friends, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wallach of Forest Hills, New York who made the trip with them to Banff, Lake Louise and Jasper then to Glacier.

From there they motored to West Yellowstone and stayed in one of the individual lodges near Old Faithful. Three hours after arriving there the earthquake hit. Although considerable damage was done to the hotel, the bungalows were left intact. Dr. Trackman related how the hotel is prepared for any emergency, as just minutes after the first severe shock at least 100 cots and mattresses and a mobile soup kitchen were set up to meet any casualties.

The following morning vacationers left in droves, including the Trackmans and their friends who left for Jackson Lake Lodge in Wyoming where they stayed for three days before going to Salt Lake City to visit the Mormon Temple. Leaving their friends in Salt Lake the Trackmans flew to Las Vegas where they spent four days at the Flamingo Hotel before flying home to Palm Springs.

The Trackmans' friends, the Wallachs and their daughter Joan, whom they will pick up in Arizona where she is vacationing, will be the houseguests of the Trackmans for two weeks in September.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Roberts of 226 So. Via Miraleste are the parents of a six pound, 15 1/2 ounce girl, born at 3:06 a. m.

A six pound, 14 ounce boy was born at 8:06 a. m., to Mr. and Mrs. Paul College of Prairie Schooner Trailer Park.

At 6:22 a. m. a six pound, 12 1/2 ounce girl, was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Buckton of 38 Palm Drive, Twenty-nine Palms.

August 29 at 5:08 a. m., a six pound, six ounce girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce of 30-725 San Joaquin, Palm Springs, and Honolulu.

Also on the 29th, an eight pound, five ounce girl was born at 5:01 p. m., to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Miguel of 473 North Calle Encelia.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grady of Twenty-nine Palms are the parents of a six pound, ten ounce boy born August 30 at 3:53 p. m.

THE SPINSTERS lost a member when Alicia Verheyen, the lovely daughter of Mrs. Marie Linneman Verheyen and the late Dr. Carl Verheyen, of Beverly Hills, became the bride of Alfred Francis Atlee. The couple recited their vows in the Old Mission at Santa Barbara where her parents had been married. The groom teaches English literature in Palm Springs High School. (Sergis Alberts Photo).

Married in Old Mission

Alicia Mary Verheyen, daughter of Mrs. Marie Linneman Verheyen and the late Doctor Carl Verheyen, of Beverly Hills, was wed to Alfred Francis Atlee Saturday noon at a Nuptial Mass, in the historic old mission at Santa Barbara. Reverend Father Augustine Hobeck, OFM, officiated, as he did at the marriage of the bride's parents in 1927.

The lovely bride wore a French tulle gown with a cathedral train, the sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves trimmed in rosepoint lace. An illusion tulle veil hung to the waist, from a five-point cap of rosepoint lace. She carried a white mother-of-pearl prayerbook, with a cascade of lilies of the valley and small white orchids.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Carl Verheyen, Jr., who wore a sea-foam green moire dress made with a bell skirt, and square neckline. Her small veiled hat was of the same fabric, and she carried a bouquet of lacy green chrysanthemums.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Harold Atlee of Sacramento. The bride's brother, Carl Verheyen, Jr., gave her away. Ushers were Leland Wright and Frank Koeller, cousin of the bride.

At the wedding reception at the Santa Barbara Biltmore, Mrs. Guy DeForest Atlee, mother of the bridegroom, wore teal blue lace, with a matching flowered hat, long white kid gloves, and white gardenias pinned to her blue bag.

Mrs. Marie Linneman Verheyen, mother of the bride, wore pale pink tucked organza, edged in delicate white lace, a white osprey hat, veiled, and long white kid gloves with gardenias pinned to her white bag.

Mr. and Mrs. Atlee met at Arizona University, where she was a Phi Beta Phi and he was a Phi Delta Theta. They will live in Palm Springs, where he is on the Palm Springs High School faculty.

Captain Welcomed Home from England

A picnic in the park this past week was an informal reunion of the Mildred Jackson family.

The Tamarisk Park outing marked the return from Europe of Mrs. Jackson's son, Capt. Francis E. Jackson, his wife, Margaret Ann, and their four children. Captain Jackson returned to Palm Springs on a 30-day leave from Thornham, England, where he has been stationed with the Air Force for the past three years.

A Navy veteran of World War II, Jackson has been a regular Air Force officer for 11 years and served as a pilot-engineer at the Thornham airbase. He is also a former Palm Springs High School student.

The picnic reunited the captain with the families of his brother, Kenneth Jackson, and sisters, Mrs. Francis (Mary Jane) Cooley and Mrs. Brod (Dianne) Soderlund, all of Palm Springs.

It also brought Mrs. Mildred Jackson together with 15 grandchildren — the four children of Captain Jackson, the five Soderlund youngsters, four of the five Cooley children and the son and daughter of Kenneth and Roselle Jackson.

Captain Jackson and his family, now staying at his mother's home, will leave for Randolph Field, Texas, at the conclusion of his leave. He has been ordered to undergo technical training in the new experimental Air Force jet fighters at Randolph.

'Ding-Dong' Dean Tells Parents How

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Dr. Francis R. Horwich, an educator best known for her television show for tots, suggests a five point program for helping your child do well in school.

The educator, in a book just published called, "The Magic of Bringing up Your Child," (McGraw Hill) offers as the first rule: Have confidence in the youngster.

Second, she says, be at home when the child starts off to and returns from school. He needs the assurance of your presence and your welcome each day.

Third, admire his new achievements and encourage his new interests.

Fourth, be actively interested in his school experiences. The author says that "at first he probably won't talk much about them. Do not ask him, 'What did you do in school today?' His answer probably would be, 'Nothing.' But ask the child something specific, such as 'Did you sing that new song today?' or 'Did you play a new game?'"

"Try to get to know your child's school. Join the Parent-Teacher Association and try to attend any school affairs to which parents are invited."

Fifth, encourage your child to bring his friends home, and to visit "those of them you feel are good friends for him."

Miss Horwich, popularly known as Miss Frances of the televised "Ding Dong School," has received more than 6 awards and citations for her educational program.

That alarm clock that was set to go off for September ... marking the end of vacation time ... went off with a jarring racket that ended a gypsy summer spent on the highways and along the seashore ...

Like always ... the two month vacation seemed to have been short-changed a few weeks ... But, you know how it is ... two hours at the desk ... and the phone's ringing and the typewriter clicking ... and people dropping in ... and life is back in the Palm Springs swing ... the way we like to have it ... The sun's just as warm ... the mountains just as beautiful ... and the Village just as wonderful as ever ...

We went the picture postcard route this summer ... heading north for Reno where we were guests of Bertha and Ed Robbin at their Virginia Street ranch home ...

Gwen Costello, Joan McManus and Alan McLean were still there (Dr. John had left earlier) ... and Ed Dillon, Betty McGee and the Larry Coopers flew up to join us and Reno had a Palm Springs visitation ...

Loved the view from the top of the Mapes ... luncheon in the Coach Room ... where we found out what it feels like to be photographed for the society page ...

visited the Nevada Club ... and was guest of honor at a party which Jim and Mary West gave for me at their Gold Hill home in Virginia City ...

Mary used to be society editor of the San Francisco Call Bulletin ... but now the Wests live in a house which was built during the days when the Comstock Mine flourished ... and which they have re-decorated and furnished with antiques ...

After a happy time at Reno ... we motored over the mountains to Tahoe ... Stopped in at the Oliver Rousseaus' pink lakeshore villa to say "hello" ... and then on to Crystal Bay ... where we dined that night with Florence and Harold Murphy at their North Shore Lake ... Felt right at home there ... as the Doll House crew is there in the summertime and Murray Arnold's orchestra occupies the bandstand ...

Jack Freeman came over to say "hi" and I saw Leo Owens in the lounge ...

En route to Portland ... we saw Mt. Lassen and the mudpots that are relics of the ex-volcano's more active days ... and beautiful blue Crater Lake ...

This was my first trip to Oregon ... and I began to think there couldn't be any people in the state ... there were so many trees ... No one ever told me how beautiful the City of the Roses is ... but I found out for myself ... The heavenly blue hydrangeas still haunt me ... We went the tourist route and drove along the Columbia River up to Bonneville ... and dined on the balcony at Multnomah Falls ... where the sunset was spinning rainbows in the great falls ...

We never went near the Centennial grounds ... but missed very few antique shops ... Ned and Joann Crawford took us to dinner at Portland's new Trader Vic and had us up to dinner at their estate home on Bar-rely back ... and in addition to Steve and Janet they have a brand new son ... born two weeks ago at South Laguna where they summured ... They have named the baby David Arthur ...

The Arthur Robinsons are already back ... and in addition to Steve and Janet they have a brand new son ... born two weeks ago at South Laguna where they summured ... They have named the baby David Arthur ...

New Dan Dailey Show at Sahara Headlines Girls

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Dancing Dan Dailey taps into the Congo Room of Hotel Sahara here Friday to open a four-week frolic he designed with one thought in mind—girls!

The popular song - and - dancer—a thinking man—has put together a package of sparkling talent in which he conveniently is the sole male.

BACKING DAILY In his third Sahara outing will be Milti Green, with whom he last worked on Broadway some 75 years ago; the exciting Elaine Dunn and Camille Williams, his dancing partner and assistant choreographer for the past several years.

Adding further feminine talent to the Stan Irwin presentation will be the Saharem Girls in Shaw-Hitchcock productions, including a finale with Dailey and the cast, all backed by Louis Basil and his orchestra.

FIRING UP THE lounge will be headliners Louis Prima and Keely Smith through Sept. 14, followed by mellow Mel Torme, with 6 p. m. to 6 a. m. support from Johnnie "Scat" Davis and the Jimmy Nuzzo Band through Sept. 21 followed by Jack Ross and the Dick Lane Quartet; the Sabres through

STANDING ON ROSTRUM, Martin B. McKneally, Newburgh, N.Y., and Mrs. Alexander H. Gray, Brownsville, Tenn., new American Legion National Commander and Auxiliary President, acknowledge cheers at Minneapolis. The two officers were elected in convention last week that also brought about a stormy controversy over "integration" of the Legion's honorary "40 and 8" unit. (CNP Photo).

Sept. 11, followed by Tomma Jean, Trio; Ginny Greer and the Gallions; and Sando Deems.

Other stars set for along the Strip include: Desert Inn, Tony Martin through Sept. 21; Dunes, Jack Carson through Sept. 9, followed by Frankie Vaughn; El Rancho Vegas, Myron Cohen and La Nue Eve, Sept. 8 through Oct. 5; Flamingo, Pearl Bailey through

Law In Action

'Childproof' Home Against Kiddies

By STATE BAR ASSN.

What are a landowner's duties toward children who come on his property without permission? In what circumstances does he have to pay when they get hurt?

A landowner has a special duty to trespassing children to see that they do not get hurt on highly dangerous things about his place. He can well expect them to wander on his place; it is up to him, within reason, to see that they don't get hurt.

MUST HE PAY for their injuries? Not, for example, if the child should have recognized the dangers, or is he could look out for himself, but doesn't.

The law expects only what is reasonable to protect the child without excessive costs.

In one case a 12-year-old girl played hide and seek on a lot the owner was building on. Chasing a playmate, she failed in a jump over a stack of windows, and fell and hurt herself.

THE LANDOWNER was not liable, the court held. This trespasser was old enough to have seen and kept out of danger.

A landowner need not childproof his place; he has only to use care and guard against dangers the trespassing children aren't likely to know about. Where a child realizes the risk and incurs injuries "in a spirit of bravado," the courts have often held that the owner was not liable.

In another case though, neighborhood children played in a home owner's swimming pool during the summers. In the winter he partly drained it but decayed leaves and dirt made the pool slippery. Although he fenced the pool off, the owner did not repair a gate that opened on to it. Playing children could see the pool from the street. One day a two-year-old boy strayed through the opening, slipped into the water, and hurt himself.

THIS TIME THE court held the owner liable. He should have drained the whole pool, put in the gate, or both. Otherwise the risk was too great: The slippery, partly filled pool was like a "trap," easy to reach, and concealing unusual dangers—dangers that a child was not likely to realize—dangers which the owner could have repaired with ease at a small cost.

Pool owners owe a duty of care to neighbor boys and girls when the dangers are great, and could be avoided by proper care.

THE graces of formal living are not easily conveyed by the written word without the risk of sounding trite. But may we say, this beautiful 3 bedroom 3 bath residence boasts magnificence with the very confident nonchalance. The planting, the exterior, the smallest interior detail can bare the expression "Perfect Condition" without the slightest blush. Not often does such superlative property come to be for sale. # Biltmore Wins Forfeit In SCMAF Tourney

Village Team Moves Into Semi-Finals

Norwalk District Champions Slated As Locals Opponent

Palm Springs Biltmore softball team moved into the second round of the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation tournament at Riverside without lifting a bat—drawing a forfeit from the Santa Ana Merchants.

Van Potts, tourney chairman, announced that the Santa Ana squad has lost two of its top players, and decided to withdraw from the scheduled Wednesday game.

Biltmore's first action now will be in the semi-finals on Friday night, with the Norwalk district champions as opponents.

During the game at Riverside Friday, the Palm Springs squad will be presented its Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation trophy won last week in a tournament here.

Biltmore also is winner of the Desert Softball League play this past season, as well as the post-season play-offs.

The "mystery" softball game heralded for the Southern California Municipal Athletic Federation's district major title in Polo Grounds Saturday turned out almost as mysteriously as it was originally noted.

Gay and Larry's of Riverside, one of that community's "red hot" teams, produced only eight eligible players at game time and forfeited to Ontario's Pacific Forge, 7-0.

The Ontario team will face seven other district champions in Riverside this week for the SCMAF Southern California title.

KOUFAX SLASHES GIANT N.L. LEAD

United Press International

It took Sandy Koufax a long time to develop but now that he has it may be just in time to put the Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series.

A 23-year-old left-hander from Brooklyn who got a $25,000 bonus in 1955 and once sprained an ankle when he "tripped over a foul line," Koufax Monday night pitched his way into the record book and the Dodgers to within one game of first place in the National League with a spectacular 5-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

A CROWD OF 32,794 at Los Angeles, including 60,194 paid, saw the 210-pound southpaw strike out 18 batters to equal the major league mark set by Bob Feller Oct. 2, 1938, and break the National League record of 17 held by Dizzy Dean since 1933.

Since he struck out 13 batters in his previous start a week ago Koufax also set a major league record of 31 strikeouts in two consecutive games.

KOUFAX' GREAT effort appeared doomed to end in defeat—even as Feller's 18-strikeout effort did in 1938—until the last of the ninth when Wally Moon's three-run homer off Al Worthington gave the Dodgers their 11th win in 19 meetings with the Giants this season. The Dodgers had tied the score in the eighth with the help of two wild pitches by Jack Sanford.

The supreme irony of Koufax' victory from the Giants' point of view was that he actually led off the game-winning rally with a single. From the moment he joined the Dodgers in '55, Koufax has been recognized as one of the weakest hitters in the history of the major leagues.

THE VICTORY WAS the fourth in their last five games for the Dodgers while the loss was the Giants' fifth in six games.

Pete Runnels' 10th-inning homer gave the Boston Red Sox a 4-3 victory over the Washington Senators in the only other major league game played Monday.

Mike Fornieles picked up his fourth win for Boston in relief of Bill Monbouquette. Jackie Jensen homered for the Red Sox in the fourth inning to lift his runs batted in total for the year to 95.

This quartet makes up the PGA tournament bureau's field staff and they are the men behind the successful promotion and guidance of every tournament.

ONE WEEK THEY may be at Akron, O., and the next you probably will find them at Tucson, Ariz.

CLAUDE HARMON, THUNDERBIRD Country Club's new pro, is pictured above showing his son Claude Jr. how to swing a golf club. Young Claude doesn't really need lessons—he came in second in the Westchester County Golf Association Junior Championships in N.Y. Harmon will be in Palm Springs to take over his duties for the start of the next golf season. He replaces Jimmy Hines, who has a big job cut out for him, in the running of Eldorado Country Club, of which he is part owner.

U.S. Piling Up Pan-Am Marks, Titles

America Monopolizes Championships, Win 26 of 30 Titles Out

CHICAGO — (UPI) — The United States was piling up gold medals at a record pace in the Pan American Games today.

With 30 championships decided, U.S. athletes had won 26 of them and were favored to win most of the nine on the program for the fifth day of competition in this athletic carnival between the nations of the Western Hemisphere.

MONDAY, LED BY two Californians, Ray Norton of Oakland and Mrs. Earlene Brown of Los Angeles, each with a second triumph, the U.S. won eight of nine titles decided.

Norton, in world record tying time for the run around a turn, won the 200 meter dash to add to the 100 meter crown he had taken the previous day. The husky Mrs. Brown added the shot put championship to the discus title she had won previously.

THEY BROUGHT the total U.S. victories to 16 in the 18 track and field events which have been decided, and in 12 of them, the U.S. set new records for the Pan American Games.

They have scored six sweeps in track—first, second and third places—with every nation limited to three entries in the events. Three of them came Monday.

It wasn't only in track and field that the U.S. was doing well.

IT WON TWO MORE weightlifting titles—Tommy Kono of Honolulu in the middleweight class and James George of Akron, Ohio, in the heavy-middleweight class—and two in the English rifle shooting competition, Arthur Cook of Adelphi, Mo., won the individual title in that event and the U.S. took the team championship.

In track and field, the U.S. had two winners in addition to Norton and Mrs. Brown. Al Oerter of West Babylon, N.Y., won the men's discus, and Hayes Jones of Pontiac, Mich., took the 110 meter hurdles.

IN TEAM COMPETITION the U.S. was doing okay, too. Its basketball team won their third consecutive game, the men beating Cuba 114-46 and the women defeating Brazil 55-38.

FRASER LAUDED FOR DAVIS WIN

FOREST HILLS, N. Y. — (UPI) — Neale Fraser of Australia, who won the Davis Cup for his country with an easy conquest of big Barry MacKay, emerged today as the favorite for the National Singles tennis championships which start Friday.

Fraser needed only two sets Monday to take the cup back to Australia, adding them to the set he had won Sunday evening for an 8-6, 3-6, 6-2, 6-4 victory over MacKay. It gave the Aussies the deciding point in a 3-2 triumph over the United States.

"THIS WILL BE known as 'Fraser's Davis Cup'," said the non-playing Aussie captain, Harry Hopman. "He won both his singles and shared in the doubles. You can't do any better."

Fraser, at 25 a veteran of seven years of international tennis, showed his service somewhat from his Sunday pace and gained in accuracy. MacKay, a 6-3, 185-pounder, relied as usual on his power game and his big serve failed him.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NO. 488

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF PALM SPRINGS FIXING THE AMOUNT OF MONEY TO BE RAISED BY TAXATION FOR THE FISCAL YEAR BEGINNING JULY 1, 1959.

The City Council of the City of Palm Springs does hereby ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. The amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation upon the taxable property within the City of Palm Springs as a revenue to carry on the various departments of such City and to pay the bonded and other indebtedness of the City for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1959, is hereby fixed as follows:

(a) For the carrying on the various departments of the City other than herein stated, the sum of Five Hundred Forty-two Thousand Eight Hundred Forty-four Dollars ($542,844).

(b) For the maintenance and operation of park and recreation facilities of the City of Palm Springs, said maintenance and operation not otherwise being provided for, the sum of Seventy-two Thousand Seven Hundred Eighty-eight Dollars ($72,788).

(c) For the purpose of providing and maintaining parks and music and for advertising purposes, to be used and expended for such purposes in accordance with Ordinance No. 192 of the City of Palm Springs, the sum of Twenty-four Thousand One Hundred Eighty-five Dollars ($24,185).

(d) For the maintenance and support and purchase of property necessary for the public library, known as the William Murray Memorial Library of the City of Palm Springs, the maintenance of said public library not being otherwise provided for, the sum of Sixty Thousand Two Hundred Nineteen Dollars ($60,219).

(e) For the maintenance and operation of the sewerage disposal system, the sum of Nineteen Thousand Three Hundred and Five Dollars ($19,305).

(f) As concerns the bond, issuance of which was authorized at the special election held February 14, 1956, for the municipal improvement consisting of street lights and trees, for the purpose of paying annual interest thereon as same became due, and also the principal as same shall become due, the sum of Ten Thousand Five Hundred Twenty-six Dollars ($10,526).

(g) As concerns the bond, issuance of which was authorized at the special election held February 14, 1956, for the municipal street improvement of McCallum-Tahquile, for the purpose of paying annual interest thereon as same became due, and also the principal as same shall become due, the sum of Eleven Thousand Twenty-eight Dollars ($11,028).

(h) As concerns the bond, issuance of which was authorized at the special election held April 26, 1948, for the purpose of paying the annual interest thereon as the same became due, and also the principal as same shall become due, the sum of Sixty Thousand One Hundred Fifty-eight Dollars ($60,158).

(i) For the purpose of financing the City's share of the employees retirement plan for the current fiscal year, the sum of Sixty-three Thousand Three Hundred Eight Dollars ($63,308).

SECTION 2. The amount of money necessary to be raised by taxation and as provided by this ordinance has been established pursuant to a budget prepared by the City Manager and approved by resolutions of the City Council, in accordance with the requirements of the "Palmer-Burns Ordinance Code." Pursuant to the authority granted by the Statute of the State of California, the budget referred to is hereby adopted, and items for purchase provided for by such budget may be purchased by the sum of Finance prior to audit by the City Council.

SECTION 3. This is an ordinance fixing the amount of money to be raised by taxation. The City Council therefore determines and declares that the same shall be effective immediately by authority of the provisions of Section 19627 of the Government Code of the State of California.

SECTION 4. The City Clerk is hereby ordered and directed to certify to the passage of this ordinance and to cause the same to be published once in The Desert Sun, a newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of Palm Springs.

Witness my hand and seal of said City of Palm Springs, California, this 27th day of August, 1959.

I further certify that said ordinance was thereupon signed by TED MCKINNEY, Vice-Mayor of Palm Springs, and attested by SHIRLEY HENRY, Deputy City Clerk.

WITNESS my hand and seal of said City of Palm Springs, California, this 27th day of August, 1959.

I hereby certify that the foregoing ordinance and certificate were published September 1, 1959, in The Desert Sun, a newspaper of general circulation, printed, published and circulated in the City of Palm Springs.

SHIRLEY HENRY, Deputy City Clerk of the City of Palm Springs, California. Published September 1, 1959.

THE PGA FIELD STAFF, from left: J. Black, H. Raynor, K. Everett and J. Gaquin. It's their responsibility to see that every PGA sanctioned tournament runs smoothly and without hitches. (CPA Photo).

Abilene, Tex., his assistant, are former players who found they couldn't beat the star pros, so they joined them.

Everett, 51, of Lafayette, Calif., is the official scorer, and Gaquin, 36, of West Newton, Mass., a former newspaperman, is the publicist.

THEIR JOB, ACCORDING to Gaquin, is to help tourney sponsors and players put on bigger, better and more successful golf tournaments.

These four actually rule the roost, however, and it is their job to make decisions on scoring, supervise activities, make pairings and rulings, arrive at the tourney site in advance of the affair, check the course and arrange news releases and interviews, radio and TV shows.

Now traveling with the group, also, is Mark Thomas, who is listed as coordinator and recently had to make an unusual ruling in a tourney in Texas.

DON WHITT, the young star, hit his ball behind a radio-TV tower and there was no place to wound up in Amarillo, Tex. Don Fairfield took a plane from St. Louis to Houston, found he had landed in Chicago. John McMillin drove the wrong road from Cincinnati to Baltimore and ended up in Zanesville, O.

Most unusual road problem was that encountered by Gary Player, the South African. In 1958 Paul Harney asked Gary to drive his car from Louisville to Fort Worth since Paul had to fly to another tourney. Gary accepted the task although he had never driven a U.S.-made auto before.

IN A RAINSTORM, he got mixed up in a cloverleaf, went down the wrong side of the highway, came up with a flat tire. He didn't know how to work the jack, finally got assistance and then the hood on the front of the car flew up and he couldn't get it to stay down. He finally took off his belt and tied it that way.

Later a cop stopped him, still on the wrong side of the road, and when the cop asked him what he was doing, Player blurted: "Doing with this car? Hell, I just don't know what I'm doing."

AFTER OBSERVING the pro stars in many tourneys over several years, Gaquin gives you his standouts:

Best putters — Art Wall and Bob Roeburg. Best chipper — Billy Casper. Hardest worker — Dow Finsterwald. Most consistent — Ford and Finsterwald. (Ford has been in the money in 105 out of 106 tourneys). Longest hitter — George Bayer. Best trap player — Julius Boros. Fastest — Ford. Slowest — Cary Middlecoff. Longest irons — Arnold Palmer. Smoothest swinger — Gene Littler.
